

How to get here

Colo-i-Suva Rainforest Eco Resort is located on Princes Road, Colo-i-Suva (pronounced Tholo-ee-Suva), opposite the Police Post and next to the Colo-i-Suva Forest Park and the Forestry Department.

Princes Road is the scenic alternative route between Nausori Airport and Suva. If you are coming from Nadi, either fly to Nausori Airport (approx. 30-minute flight) or travel by bus to Suva (approx. 5 hours). From Nausori Airport, take a taxi ride to the resort, which will take approx 20 minutes and cost around FJD 18.

Travelling from the Suva city, take the local 'Saweni' bus (Tacirua Bus Company) from the Bus Stand next to the Suva Market (runs hourly between 6.00am-7.00pm) and tell the driver you are coming to Colo-i-Suva Rainforest Eco Resort (formerly Raintree Lodge). The bus stop is right outside our door!

A taxi from Suva City will take approx. 15 minutes and cost around FJD 15.

“Offers Suva’s best budget accommodation on the edge of the rainforest. Staff are fantastically friendly, the atmosphere relaxed and the restaurant superb.”

Nature at your doorstep!

Stay close to nature – from homely bures with their own verandah over looking the lake or the pond, 2-storey poolside studio apartments to budget accomodation with shared facilities. All rooms are fully serviced.

Raintree Restaurant and Bar

(Open 7.00am–10.00pm daily)

Famous for its lush surroundings and tranquil lake outlook, the Raintree Restaurant and Bar offers a wide range of dining options. Treat your tastebuds with our ‘Taste of Fiji’ blackboard menu or choose a la carte. The spacious main restaurant and balcony can comfortably cater for up to 60 people.

Conference Centre

A 25-delegate conference room overlooking the lake provides a unique conference setting for meetings with excellent catering provided by the resort’s kitchen.

Raintree activities

We are situated just a stroll away from the Colo-i-Suva Forest Park, where you can enjoy spectacular waterfalls, bush walks and rare birds. We can arrange a guide to escort you. In Suva City, visit the Fiji Museum, Botanical Gardens, and don’t miss the fabulous fruit and vegetable market as well as a number of duty-free department stores for shopping. Experience traditional Fijian hospitality on a village visit or simply slow the pace with a paddle on the resort’s own lake or a swim in the pool.
